SHARES

3. (a) Subject to the Law and as otherwise provided in these Articles, all Shares for the time being and from time to time unissued may be offered, issued, allotted, or disposed of in such manners, to such persons, on such terms and having such rights and being subject to such restrictions as the Board of Directors from time to time and in its discretion determine.

(b) Issuance of new ordinary Shares of the Company shall be approved by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of the Directors. The issue of new Shares shall at all times be subject to the sufficiency of the authorised capital of the Company. The Company shall not issue any unpaid Shares or partial paid-up Shares.

- (c) During the Relevant Period, if at anytime the Board resolves to issue new Shares:
 - (i) Upon each issuance of new Shares, the Board of Directors may reserve not more than fifteen percent (15%) of the newly issued Shares for subscription by the designated employees of the Company who are determined by the Board in its reasonable discretion;
- (d) The Company shall, unless otherwise resolved by an Ordinary Resolution, after reserving the portion of Shares for subscription by its employees according to the provisions in these Articles and those retained for public issuance according to the law of the R.O.C., first offer such remaining new Shares, by a make public announcement of and notify its then-existing Members of such new issuance in accordance to the Applicable Listing Rules to allow such Members to subscribe the new Shares in proportion respectively to their original shareholding according to the preemptive rights vested therein and shall state in the notice that if any Member fails to subscribe for the new Shares within the stated timeframe, his right shall be forfeited.

Where the shareholding of an existing Member does not allow his subscription of one newly-issued Share, the shareholding of several Members may be combined for joint subscription of one or more integral new Shares or for subscription of new Shares in the name of a single Member.

New Shares left unsubscribed by original Members may be offered for public issuance or for subscription by specific person or persons through negotiation.

- (e) Existing Members' preemptive right stipulated in Paragraph (d) of this Article will not apply to the issuance of new Shares of the Company in the following situations:
 - (i) in connection with merger with another company, split up of the Company, or reorganization of the Company;
 - (ii) in connection with the Company's performance of obligations regarding employees Share subscription warrant or Share subscription right agreement;
 - (iii) in connection with the Company's performance of obligations regarding convertible corporate bonds or corporate bonds with warrants;
 - (iii) in connection with the Company's performance of obligations regarding Share subscription warrant or Share subscription right agreement; and

- (v) any other exemptions provided under the R.O.C. Laws.

- (f) When the Company increases its issued share capital by issuing new Share for cash consideration in the R.O.C., unless the competent authority in the R.O.C. considers that public issuance is not necessary or inappropriate for the Company to conduct, the Company shall allocate ten percent (10%) of the total amount of new Shares to be issued for public issuance within the R.O.C., PROVIDED THAT if a percentage higher than the aforementioned 10% is approved by an Ordinary Resolution to be offered, the percentage determined by such resolution shall prevail.

4. Variation of Rights Attached to Shares:

- (a) Subject to the provisions, if any, in the Memorandum of Association, and without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing Shares, the Company may issue Shares of different classes with such preferred, deferred, or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of Share capital or otherwise to those of ordinary Shares issued by the Company (“Special Share”), with the approval of a Special Resolution of that class from time to time.

Subject to the provisions the Law, regulations of the R.O.C. and these Articles, the Company may issue Share on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company or the holders are liable, to be redeemed upon the happening of a specified event or upon a given date and either at the option of the Company or the Member on such terms and in such manner as the Company may by a Special Resolution resolve.

- (b) Prior to the issuance of any Special Shares approved pursuant to the preceding paragraph of this Article, these Articles shall be amended to set forth the rights and obligations of the Special Shares, including but not limited to the following terms, and the same shall apply to any variation of rights of Special Shares:
 - (i) the total number of Special Shares that have been authorized to be issued and total number of Special Shares already issued;
 - (ii) the order, fixed amount or fixed ratio for allocation of dividends and bonus on Special Shares;
 - (iii) the order, fixed amount or fixed ratio allocation of residual assets of the Company;
 - (iv) the order of or restrictions on the exercise of voting right(s) (including those without voting rights) of Members of the Special Shares;
 - (v) other matters related to the rights and obligations of Special Shares; and
 - (vi) the conditions and methods when the Company is authorized or compelled to redeem any Special Share; or a declaration that the redemption rights shall not apply.

- (c) Whenever the share capital of the Company is divided into different Classes of Shares, including where Special Shares are issued, subject to Article 110, the special rights attached to any Class shall be varied or abrogated with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the Shares of such Class. To every such separate general meeting and all adjournments thereof, all the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the Company and to the proceedings thereat shall mutatis mutandis apply.
- 5 (a) The Company may issue Shares without printing share certificates. Any share certificate of the Company, if any, shall not be the bearer certificate. During the Relevant Period, the Company shall not issue share certificates and the share certificates existing prior to the Relevant Period shall be cancelled, provided that the Register shall be conclusive evidence of the entitlement of a Person to Shares recorded against his name.
- (b) During the Relevant Period, the Company shall deliver, or shall cause its Shareholders' Service Agent to deliver Shares by book-entry transfer to the subscribers within thirty (30) days from the date such Shares may be delivered pursuant to the Law. The Company shall make a public announcement in accordance with Applicable Listing Rules prior to the delivery of such Shares.
6. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any Share upon any trust, and the Company shall not, unless required by law, be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or actual interest in any Share (except only as otherwise provided by these Articles, the Law or law otherwise requires or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction) or any other rights in respect of any Share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder, but the Company may in accordance with the Law issue fractions of Shares.
7. Subject to these Articles, the Shares shall be at the disposal of the Board, and they may (subject to the provisions of the Law) allot, grant options, issue warrants or other similar rights with respect thereto over, or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, on such terms and conditions, and at such times as they think fit, but so that no Share shall be issued at a discount, except in accordance with the provisions of the Law.

EMPLOYEE INCENTIVE PROGRAM

8. The Company may, upon adoption of a resolution by a majority voting of the Directors present at a meeting of the Board attended by two-thirds of the Directors, adopt one or more employee incentive program(s) which are consistent with the Applicable Listing Rules and according to such plan(s) the Company may issue Shares, options, warrants or other similar rights for acquiring Shares of the Company in order for the employees of the Company or of the subsidiaries of the Company to acquire Shares of the Company in accordance with the regulations of the R.O.C.

9. Any options, warrants or other similar rights for acquiring Shares of the Company issued by the Company according to the employee incentive program(s) stipulated in Article 8 shall not be transferred or assigned unless through inheritance.

RIGHT OF APPRAISAL

10. In resolving any one of the following through Members' resolution in accordance with the provisions of the Law, if any Member notifies in writing to the Company expressing his objection prior to the adoption of a resolution at a general meeting and subsequently raises his objection at the general meeting, he/she may request the Company to purchase all of his Shares at the then prevailing fair price:
 - (a) entering into, amending, or terminating any contract for lease of the Company's business in whole or contracts delegating the operations to others or contracts forming joint operation with others;
 - (b) transferring the whole or any essential part of its business or assets, provided, however, this shall not apply if, at the time of adopting a resolution, the general meeting also adopts a resolution for winding-up; or
 - (c) accepting the transfer of another's whole business or assets, which has great bearing on the business operation of the Company.
11. In the event of any spin-off or merger with other companies as resolved by the Company's Members, any Member who has expressed his dissent, either in writing or verbally, with a record before or during the meeting, may waive his voting right and request the Company to purchase his Shares at the prevailing fair price.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

12. Subject to the Law and Applicable Listing Rules, Shares issued by the Company shall be fully paid up when issued.
13. Subject to the Law and Applicable Listing Rules, Shares issued by the Company shall be freely transferable, provided that any Share subscribed by the employees of the Company may be subject to transfer restrictions for the period no longer than two years as the Board may determine in their discretion.

14. The Company shall not be obligated to recognize any transfer or assignment of Shares unless the name/title and residence/domicile of the transferor and transferee have been recorded in the Register.
15. The registration of transfers may be suspended when the Register is closed in accordance with Article 108.
16. All instruments of transfer that are registered, if any, shall be retained by the Company.
17. [Deleted]
18. [Deleted]
19. [Deleted]
20. In the case of the death of a Member, the survivor, and the legal personal representative of a deceased where he was sole or only surviving holder of a Share shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share. In case of a Share registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivors or survivor, or the legal personal representatives of the deceased survivor where he was a sole or only surviving holder of a Share, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share.
21. Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors, and subject as hereinafter provided, have the right either to be registered as a Member in respect of the Share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the Share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made; but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the Share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.
22. A person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the Share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

23. Subject to Article 110, the Company may from time to time by Ordinary

Resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into Shares of such Classes of such par value, as the resolution shall prescribe.

24. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, all new Shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors in accordance with Article 7.
25. (1) The Company may by Ordinary Resolution:
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its Share capital into Shares of a larger par value than its existing Shares;
 - (b) sub-divide its existing Shares, or any of them, into Shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association, subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Law; and
 - (c) cancel any Shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital the amount of the Shares so cancelled.
- (2) The Company may by a Special Resolution reduce its share capital in the manner authorised, and subject to any conditions prescribed, by the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules. During the Relevant Period, a capital reduction of share capital shall be effected based on the percentage of shareholding of the Members pro rata, unless otherwise provided for in the Laws or the Applicable Listing Rules.
26. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Law, the Memorandum of Association and these Articles, the Company may purchase its own Shares, including any redeemable Shares, provided that the manner of purchase has first been authorised by Ordinary Resolution and may make payment therefor or for any redemption of Shares in any manner authorised by the Law, including out of profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of Shares.
- (2) Any power of the Company to purchase or otherwise acquire its own Shares shall be exercisable upon the approval of a majority of the Board present at a Board meeting attended by two-thirds or more of Directors, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit and shall also be subject to the Law and these Articles and, for so long as the Shares of the Company are listed on the Designated Stock Exchange, the Applicable Listing Rules. Subject to the Law, Shares may be purchased out of profits of the Company, out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of Shares made for the purposes of the purchase, or by a payment out of capital as the Board may determine, and shall be purchased for cash, unless otherwise directed by the Members. Any Shares so purchased shall be deemed cancelled immediately.

GENERAL MEETINGS

27. Convention of General Meetings:

- (a) All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called special general meetings.
- (b) The general meetings shall be held at least once every year.
- (c) The Board may, whenever they think fit, convene a general meeting of the Company.
- (d) The Company shall in each year convene and hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting within six (6) months after the close of each fiscal year and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it.
- (e) During the Relevant Period, all general meetings of the Company shall be held in the R.O.C., provided if the Board proposes to hold a general meeting outside the R.O.C., the Company shall notify the GTSM for approval (or the TWSE, if applicable) within two (2) days from a resolution of the Board passing such proposal or the Member acquires approval from the authorities. When the Company holds a general meeting outside the R.O.C., the Company shall designate an institution, approved by the FSC and the GTSM, to handle administrative matters of such general meeting (such as voting) in the R.O.C..
- (f) Any one or more Members continuously holding in the aggregate of three percent (3%) or more of the paid up share capital of the Company for a period of one (1) year or a longer time may, by depositing a written requisition notice at the Shareholders' Service Agent setting forth therein the subjects for discussion and the reasons, request the Board to convene a special general meeting of Members. If the Board fails to give a notice to Members for convening such meeting within 15 days after the filing of such requisition notice, the requisitionists themselves may, after obtaining an approval from the competent authority, convene a special general meeting of Members on his/their own in the same manner.
- (g) Subject to the Law, Member(s) holding one percent (1%) or more of the total number of outstanding Shares of the Company may submit to the Company proposals for resolution at an annual general meeting of the Company, provided that only one matter shall be allowed in each proposal. Proposals submitted by Member(s) holding less than one percent (1%) of the total number of outstanding Shares of the Company cannot be resolved by a resolution of such general meeting; and if such proposal contains more than one matter, it shall not be included in the meeting agenda.

28. Notice of General Meeting:

- (a) At least thirty (30) days' notice in writing prior to the scheduled date of any annual general meetings and fifteen (15) days' notice in writing prior to the scheduled date of any special general meetings, specifying the place, the day and the time of meeting and, in the case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given in manner hereinafter provided, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting ("Cause(s) or Subject(s) of a General Meeting"), to each Member. Every notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is given or deemed to be given and of the day for which the general meeting is to be held and shall specify the place, the day and the time of the meeting and the agenda and the proposals to be resolved at the general meeting. The notice for a general meeting may be given by means of electronic communication if the Company obtains prior consent from the Members or as permitted by the Law and the R.O.C. Laws. With the consent of all the Members entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice or without notice and in such manner as those Members may think fit.
- (b) The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of a notice of a meeting by, any Member entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting.
- (c) For the purpose of this Article, the following matters shall be regarded as special business and be specified in the notice of a general meeting with the description of their major content, and shall not be brought up as ad hoc motions:
 - (i) Election or discharge of Directors;
 - (ii) Change of election method of Directors (a comparison table of the change shall be provided in the notice);
 - (iii) Alteration(s) and/or amendment(s) of the Memorandum of Association or these Articles;
 - (iv) Winding-up, Merger, Spin-off of the Company;
 - (v) Entering into, amending, or terminating any contract for lease of the Company's business in whole, any contract delegating the Company's operations to others or any contract forming joint operations with others;

- (vi) Transferring the whole or any material part of its business or assets;
- (vii) Accepting the transfer of another's entire business or assets, which has great bearing on the business operation of the Company;
- (viii) Private Placement of any equity-type securities of the Company;
- (ix) Approving Director's actions against non-compete obligations;
- (x) Distributing all or part of dividends and/or bonus through issuance of new Shares;
- (xi) Capitalisation of the Capital Reserve of the Company by issuing new Shares to its existing Member in proportion to the number of Shares being held by each of them; and
- (xii) During the Relevant Period, if the Company (i) enters into a Merger, in which the Company is not the surviving company, (ii) makes a general transfer of all the business and assets, (iii) is being acquired by another company as its wholly-owned subsidiary by means of a Share Exchange, or (iv) carries out a Spin-off, and the surviving company, assigned company, acquirer, or the newly incorporated spun-off company is a Non TPEX-Listed Company, then it is necessary for the Company to pass a resolution adopted by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the total number of votes represented by the issued shares of the Company.

29. General Meeting Agenda:

During the Relevant Period, the Company shall prepare the general meeting agenda handbook and supplemental materials and shall comply with applicable regulations of the R.O.C. within fifteen (15) days before Company is to convene an annual general meeting, and to upload such materials to the place on the internet as designated by the FSC and the GTSM (Market Observation Post System) within twenty one (21) days before an annual general meeting or fifteen (15) days before a special general meeting.

30. Resolution

- (a) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time that the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise provided by these Articles, one or more Members holding in the aggregate not less than a majority of the total issued share capital of the Company present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be a quorum for all purposes.
- (b) Unless otherwise provided herein or required by the Law, resolutions at a general meeting shall be adopted by an Ordinary Resolution. The Company may from time to time by an Ordinary Resolution:

- (i) increase the share capital as stipulated in Article 23;
 - (ii) consolidate or dividing all or any of its Share capital into Shares of a par value larger than that of its existing Shares as stipulated in Article 25;
 - (iii) sub-divide its existing Shares, or any of them, into Shares of par value smaller than that fixed by the Memorandum of Association, subject nevertheless to the provisions of Section 13 of the Law as stipulated in Article 25;
 - (iv) cancel any Shares which, on the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person as stipulated in Article 25; and
 - (v) declare dividends and other interests as stipulated in Article 86.
- (c) The Company may from time to time by a Special Resolution:
- (i) issue Special Shares as stipulated in Article 4;
 - (ii) change the name of the Company;
 - (iii) change the currency denomination of the share capital of the Company;
 - (iv) issue Shares that can be redeemed or bought back by Members or the Company subject to the requirements of the Law and the of the R.O.C. Laws, as stipulated in Article 4;
 - (v) subject to the Law, be voluntary winding up as stipulated in Article 100;

31. At any general meeting convened upon the requisition of Members, if a quorum is not present at the time appointed for the meeting, such meeting shall be dissolved; provided however, that the Chairman may postpone the meeting to convene at a later time on the same date. Such postponement shall be limited to no more than two times, and the total period of postponement shall not exceed one hour.
32. The Chairman shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company convened by the Board. In case the Chairman is not present at the general meeting or is unwilling to act as chairman of such general meeting, the Chairman shall designate one of the Directors to act as the chairman of such general meeting. In the absence of such designation, the Director(s) may choose one of them to be the chairman of such general meeting. Matters not stipulated in these Articles shall be processed according to the Rules of Procedure for General Meetings, subject to the Law.
33. For a general meeting convened by any Person other than the Board having the convening right, such Person shall act as the chairman of that meeting; provided that if there are two or more Persons jointly convening such meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall be elected from those Persons. Matters not stipulated in these Articles shall be processed according to the Rules of Procedure for General Meetings., subject to the Law.
34. The chairman of the general meeting may by Ordinary Resolution at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting, or adjourned meeting, is adjourned for more than five (5) days, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

35. At any general meeting, a proposal for resolution shall be decided on a poll.
36. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The number or proportion of the votes in favour of, or against, that resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
37. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs.
38. In case the procedure for convening a general meeting of Members or the method of adopting resolutions is in violation of the Law, the Applicable Listing Rules, the Memorandum of Associations or these Articles, a Member may, within thirty (30) days from the date of the said resolution, submit a petition to the Taiwan Taipei District Court or the competent court in the Cayman Islands, as applicable, for an appropriate remedy, including but not limited to, requesting the court to invalidate and cancel the resolution adopted therein.
39. Unless otherwise expressly required by the Law or these Articles, any matter which has been presented for resolution, approval, confirmation or adoption by the Members at any general meeting may be passed by an Ordinary Resolution.
40. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

41. Except otherwise provided in these Articles, and subject to any rights and restrictions for the time being attached to any Share, every Member who is present in person (or in the case of a Member being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) and every Person representing a Member by proxy shall have one vote for each Share of which he or the Person represented by proxy is the holder which is fully paid or credited as fully paid.
42. A Member who has a personal interest in the matter under discussion at a general meeting, which may impair the interest of the Company, shall not exercise his voting right, neither is he/she entitled to vote on behalf of another Member. Where the Company has knowledge that any Member is, under the R.O.C. Laws, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such Member in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

43. Subject to the Law, the Shares shall have no voting rights under any of the following circumstances:
- (a) the Shares of the Company that are held by its Subordinate Company, where the total number of voting shares or total amount of capital held or invested by the Company in such a Subordinate Company represents more than one half of the total number of voting shares or the total voting capital of such a Subordinate Company; or
 - (b) the Shares of the Company and its Subordinate Company(ies) that are held by another company, where the total number of the voting shares or total voting capital of that company held or invested by the Company and its Subordinate Company(ies) directly or indirectly represents more than one half of the total number of the voting shares or the total voting capital of such a company.
 - (c) the Shares that are held in accordance with Article 197-1 of the R.O.C. Company Act.

The Shares held by Members pursuant to this Article 43 (a) and (b) will not be counted for quorum purposes, but the Shares held by Members pursuant to this Article 43(c) may be counted for quorum purposes. The Shares held by Members having no voting right shall not be counted in the total number of issued shares while adopting a resolution at a general meeting.

44. Where there are several persons owning the same Share or Shares, such joint Members shall select a representative among them to exercise their shareholders rights. The vote of the senior who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint Members; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members. The joint Members of a Share or Shares shall be jointly and severally liable to the Company to pay for such Share or Shares.
45. A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote by his committee, or other Person in the nature of a committee appointed by that court, and any such committee or other Person, may vote by proxy.
46. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting, unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of Shares in the Company have been paid.
47. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

48. Proxy:

- (a) A Member may appoint a proxy to attend a general meeting in his/its behalf by executing a power of attorney prepared by the Company stating therein the scope of power authorized to the proxy.
The format and content of proxies to be used for attendance of a general meeting of the Company shall include instructions for filling out the form, the matters entrusted by the Member under the proxy, and the basic information of the Member, solicitor, and proxy agent. The mailing, or transmission as an electronic document, of proxy forms to all Members shall be conducted on the same day.
- (b) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the Member or, if the Member is a corporation, either under seal or under the hand of a director or officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company.
- (c) Except for the trust enterprises incorporated according to the R.O.C. Laws or a professional shareholder services agent approved by the competent authority of the R.O.C., when a person who acts as the proxy for two or more Members, the number of voting power represented by him/her shall not exceed three percent (3%) of the total number of voting Shares of the Company, otherwise, the portion of excessive voting power shall not be counted.
- (d) A Member may only execute one power of attorney and appoint one proxy, and shall serve such written proxy to the Company no later than five (5) days prior to the meeting date of the general meeting. In case two or more written proxies are received from one Member, the first one received by the Company shall prevail; unless an explicit statement to revoke the previous written proxy is made in the proxy which comes
- (e) In case a Member has exercised the voting power thereof in writing or by way of electronic transmission, and has also authorized a proxy to attend the general meeting in his/its behalf, then the voting power exercised by the authorized proxy for the said Member shall prevail.
- (f) The use of proxy and proxy contest shall comply with the “Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholder Meetings of Public Companies” and applicable regulations of the R.O.C.

49. Voting through Writing or Electronic Transmission:

- (a) Subject to the Law, the voting power at a general meeting of the Company may be exercised in writing or by way of electronic transmission, provided, however, that the method for exercising the voting power shall be described in the notice of general meeting to be given to the Members if the voting power will be exercised in writing or by way of electronic transmission. When a general meeting is convened outside the R.O.C., the Company shall provide Member with voting power exercised in writing or by way of electronic transmission.

- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, a Member who exercises his voting power thereof as set forth in Article 48 and this Article 49 in accordance with the R.O.C. Laws at a general meeting in writing or by way of electronic transmission shall be deemed to have attended and voted in person at the general meeting for the purposes of these Articles and the Law, but shall be deemed to have waived the voting power thereof in respect of any motion(s) from the floors and/or amendment(s) to the contents of the original proposal(s) at the general meeting.
- (c) In case a Member elects to exercise the voting power thereof in writing or by way of electronic transmission, his/its declaration of intention shall be served to the Company no later than the five (5) days prior to the scheduled meeting date of the general meeting, whereas if two or more declarations of the same intention are served to the Company, the first declaration of such intention received shall prevail; unless an explicit statement to revoke the previous declaration is made in the declaration which comes later.
- (d) Subject to the Law and applicable regulations, and subject to Article 49(e), in case a Member who has exercised his/its voting power in writing or by way of electronic transmission intends to attend the general meeting in person, he/she/it shall, at least two (2) days prior to the meeting date of the scheduled general meeting and in the same manner previously used in exercising his/its voting power, serve a separate declaration of intention to revoke his/its previous declaration of intention made in exercising the voting power. In the absence of a timely revocation of the previous declaration of intention, the voting power exercised in writing or by way of electronic transmission shall prevail.
- (e) The use and proxy contest shall comply with the “Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholder Meetings of Public Companies” and regulations of the R.O.C.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETING

- 50. Subject to other provisions in these Articles, any corporation which is a Member of the Company may by resolution of its Directors or any committee of the Directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any Class of Members of the Company, and the Person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member of the Company.

DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND AUDIT COMMITTEE

51. Subject to these Articles, the term for which a Director shall hold office shall be three (3) years; thereafter he/she may be eligible for re-election, and the cumulative voting system shall be used for all elections of directors. In case no election of new Directors is effected prior to the expiration of the term of office of existing Directors, the term of office shall be extended until the time new Directors are elected and assume their offices subject to these Articles.
52. (a) Except otherwise provided by the general meeting of the Company, the number of Directors shall be no less than five (5) Directors and no more than nine (9) Directors. The actual number of Directors shall be determined from time to time solely by an Ordinary Resolution.
- (b) Except where the GTSM grants approval, a spousal relationship or a familial relationship within the second degree of kinship may not exist among more than half of a Company's Directors.
- (c) When the Company convenes a general meeting for the election of Directors and the original selectees do not meet the conditions mentioned before, the election of the Director receiving the lowest number of votes among those not meeting the conditions shall be deemed invalid. If he is onboard following an invalidated election, he shall be discharged.
53. (a) During the Relevant Period, the number of Independent Directors of the Company shall not be less than three (3) or not less than one-fifth of the total number of Directors, whichever is higher, at least one (1) (or such other number as shall be in compliance with applicable law, rules or regulations or the Applicable Listing Rules or other applicable R.O.C. Laws required for a foreign issuer) of whom shall be domiciled in the Republic of China,.

When an Independent Director ceases to act for any reason, resulting in a number of Independent Directors lower than the minimum number required by these Articles, an election for an Independent Director shall be held at the next general meeting. When all Independent Directors cease to act or all remaining Independent Directors are not domiciled in the R.O.C., the Company shall convene a special general meeting of Members to hold an election within sixty (60) days from the date on which the situation arises.

- (b) Independent Directors shall possess professional knowledge and they shall maintain independence within the scope of their directorial duties, and may not have any direct or indirect interest in the Company. Regulations governing the professional qualifications, restrictions on shareholdings and concurrent positions held, assessment of independence, method of nomination, and other matters for compliance with respect to Independent Directors prescribed by the securities regulations of the R.O.C. shall apply mutatis mutandis.

- (c) The Company may establish an Audit Committee comprising of all the Independent Directors. The number of the Audit Committee Members shall not be fewer than three (3) Persons, one of whom shall be the convenor, and at least one of whom shall have accounting or financial expertise. A resolution of the Audit Committee shall be approved by a majority of all Audit Committee Members.
 - (d) Where the Company has established an Audit Committee pursuant to these Articles, the following matters shall be subject to the approval by a majority of all the Audit Committee Members and be submitted to the Board for a resolution:
 - (i) the adoption or amendment of an internal control system;
 - (ii) the assessment of the effectiveness of the internal control system;
 - (iii) the adoption of or amendment to handling procedures for financial or operational actions of material significance, such as the acquisition or disposal of assets, derivatives trading, monetary loans to others, or endorsements or guarantees for others;
 - (iv) a matter bearing on the personal interest of a Director;
 - (v) a transaction relating to material asset or derivatives trading;
 - (vi) the granting or provision of a material monetary loan, endorsement, or provision of guarantee;
 - (vii) the offering, issuance, or Private Placement of any equity-type securities;
 - (viii) the engagement or dismissal of an attesting chartered public accountant, or the compensation given thereto;
 - (ix) the appointment or discharge of a financial, accounting, or internal auditing officer; and
 - (x) annual and semi-annual financial reports.
 - (e) With the exception of subparagraph (x) of this Article 53(d), any other matters under the preceding subparagraph (d) of this Article 53 that has not been approved by the majority of all the Audit Committee Members may be undertaken upon the approval of two-thirds or more of all Directors, and the resolution(s) of the Audit Committee Members shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Board.
54. (a) The names of the first Directors shall be determined in writing by the subscribers of the Memorandum of Association.
- (b) Directors shall be elected by the Members in a general meeting. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the principle of cumulative voting shall apply in any election of Directors pursuant to this Article. Each Member entitled to vote in such election shall have a number of votes equal to the product of (i) the number of votes conferred by such Member's Shares and (ii) the number of Directors to be elected at the general meeting. Each Member may divide and distribute such Member's votes, as so calculated, among any one or more candidates for the directorships to be filled, or such Member may cast such Member's votes for a single candidate. At such election, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of Directors to be elected, shall be elected.

- (c) The proceedings and the voting regarding the election of Directors not covered by these Articles shall be governed by the internal rules of the Company, as adopted and amended by an Ordinary Resolution of the Members from time to time, which shall be in compliance with the Law and the relevant Applicable Listing Rules.
 - (d) Except otherwise provided in these Articles, the Company may adopt a candidate nomination mechanism for election of Directors other than Independent Directors, which is in compliance with the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules. Subject to the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules, the Board may establish detailed rules and procedures for such candidate nomination.
55. The Board shall have a chairman (the “Chairman”) elected and appointed from among the Directors by a majority vote at a meeting attended by over two-thirds of all of the Directors then in office. The period for which the Chairman will hold office will also be determined by a majority of the Directors present at the Board meeting with a quorum of at least two-thirds of all of the Directors then in office. Subject to these Articles, and in particular Article 82, the Chairman shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the Board.
56. During the Relevant Period, the Company shall establish a Remuneration Committee. The Remuneration Committee shall comprise not fewer than three (3) Persons in number, including at least one Independent Director. The remuneration of the Directors shall from time to time be determined by the Remuneration Committee in accordance with the Applicable Listing Rules and the bylaws regarding the Remuneration Committee of the Company. The Directors shall also be entitled to be paid their travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in going to, attending and returning from meetings of the Directors, or any committee of the Directors, or general meetings of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company, or to receive a fixed allowance in respect thereof as may be determined by the Directors from time to time, or a combination partly of one such method and partly the other.
57. A Director shall not be required to hold any Shares in the Company by way of qualification unless otherwise required by these Articles.

58. Any Director may in writing appoint another Director to be his alternate, provided however, in case a Director appoints another Director to attend and vote on his behalf at a Board meeting, the appointing Director shall, at each time prior to such Board meeting, lodge an instrument in writing appointing the alternate Director to be his proxy and state therein the scope of authority of such alternate Director on the subjects to be discussed at such Board meeting. Every such alternate Director shall then be entitled to attend and vote at such Board meeting if the Director appointing him is not personally present at such Board meeting, and such alternate Director has a separate vote on behalf of the appointing Director in addition to his own vote as a Director. Every Director may accept the appointment to act as an alternate Director aforementioned of one appointing Director only. A Director may at any time, in writing, revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him in writing. The appointment of alternate shall be revoked automatically if the appointing Director ceases to be a Director at any time. Such alternate shall not be an officer of the Company and shall be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him. The remuneration of such alternate shall be payable out of the remuneration of the appointing Director appointing him and the proportion thereof shall be agreed between them.
59. Any Director may appoint another Director to be the proxy of that Director to attend and vote on his behalf, in accordance with instructions given by that Director at a meeting or meetings of the Directors which that Director is unable to attend personally. The instrument appointing the proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointing Director and shall be in any usual or common form or such other form as the Directors may approve, and must be lodged with the Chairman of the meeting of the Directors at which such proxy is to be used, or first used, prior to the commencement of the meeting.
60. The Directors may by resolution, appoint one of their numbers to be President upon such terms as to duration of office, remuneration and otherwise as they may think fit.
61. The Directors may also by resolution appoint a Secretary (and if need be an Assistant Secretary or Assistant Secretaries) and such other officers as may from time to time be required upon such terms as to duration of office and otherwise and upon such conditions and with such powers as they may think fit, provided that the remuneration of such Secretary and such other officers shall be determined by the Remuneration Committee in accordance with the Applicable Listing Rules and the bylaws regarding the Remuneration Committee of the Company. Such Secretary, Assistant Secretary or other officers need not be Directors and in the case of the other officers may be ascribed such titles as the Directors may decide. Any Secretary, Assistant Secretary or other officers so appointed by the Directors may be removed by the Directors.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

62. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board of Directors.

Subject to the Law and these Articles, the Directors may exercise all such powers of the Company, except for the matters the execution of which shall be effected pursuant to the resolutions of Shareholders at a general meeting as required by the Law, these Articles or the Applicable Listing Rules. The Directors may pay all expenses incurred in setting up and registering the Company.

63. Subject to the Law and these Articles, the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital or any part thereof, to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities whenever money is borrowed or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

(B) The Directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney (whether under Seal or under hand) or otherwise appoint any company, firm or person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Directors may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.
65. All cheques promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the Directors shall from time to time by resolution determine.
66. A Director, who does anything for himself or on behalf of another person that is within the scope of the Company's business, shall explain to the general meeting of Members the essential contents of such an act and secure its approval via a Special Resolution.
67. At the close of each fiscal year, the Board shall prepare and submit the financial statements and records and such other reports and documents as may be required by the Law to the annual general meeting of Members for its ratification; and after the ratification thereof by the general meeting of Members, the Board shall distribute to each Member the copies of ratified financial statements and the resolutions for distribution of retain earnings and/or offsetting of losses. The Company may make distribution of said copies as required in the preceding Paragraph by disclosing on the Market Observation Post System (MOPS) in accordance with the R.O.C Law.

68. (a) The statements and records of accounts prepared by the Board shall be made available at the business office of its securities agent in the R.O.C. for inspection at any time by the Members, ten (10) days prior to the annual Member's general meeting.
- (b) The Board shall keep copies of the yearly business report and financial statements as required by the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules at the office of its Shareholders' Service Agent before ten (10) days of the annual general meeting and any of its Members is entitled to inspect such documents during normal business hours of such service agent. The Board shall keep at the business office of its Shareholders' Service Agent in the R.O.C. copies of the Memorandum of Associations and these Articles, the minutes of every general meeting of the Members, the financial statements, the Members roster and the counterfoil of corporate bonds issued by the Company.
- (c) Any Member may request at any time by submitting evidentiary document(s) to show his interests involved and indicating the scope of interested matters, an access to inspect and to make copies of these Articles and accounting books and records. However, the Directors may from time to time determine the proper time, place and ways of such inspection and copy.
- (d) The accounts relating to the Company's affairs shall only be audited in such manner and with such financial year end as may be determined from time to time by the Directors, or required by the Applicable Listing Rules or other R.O.C. Laws.
- (e) The Directors in each year shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, an annual return and declaration setting forth the particulars required by the Law and deliver a copy thereof to the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands.
69. The Directors shall cause minutes to be prepared and made in books or loose-leaf folders provided for the purpose of recording:
- (a) of all appointments of officers made by the Directors;
- (b) of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors and of any committee of the Directors;
- (c) of all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the Members of the Company and of the Directors and of committees of Directors; and the chairman of all such meetings or of any meeting confirming the minutes thereof shall sign the same.

70. The Board of the Company whose securities are being acquired shall, within seven (7) days after its or its litigious or non-litigious agent's receipt of the copy of the Public Tender Offer Report Form and relevant documents reported and publicly announced by the offeror, pass a resolution for the recommendation, consent or objection to such tender offer, and have the following items publicly announced:
- (a) The types, number and amount of Shares currently held by the current Directors and any Members with more than ten percent (10%) of the Company's Shares.
 - (b) The recommendation made to the Company's Members on such tender offer purchase, wherein the names and reasons of every objecting Director shall be recorded.
 - (c) Whether there were major changes on the Company's financial conditions after the delivery of its most recent financial statements, and the contents of such changes.
 - (d) The types, number and amount of Shares of the offeror or its affiliated enterprises held by the current Directors or the majority Members holding over ten percent (10%) of the Shares of the Company.

DISQUALIFICATION AND CHANGES OF DIRECTORS

71. The office of Director shall be vacated, if such Director:
- (a) has committed the offence in terms of organized crimes and subsequently adjudicated guilty by a final judgment, and the time elapsed after serving the full term of the sentence is less than five (5) years;
 - (b) has committed the offence in terms of fraud, breach of trust or misappropriation and subsequently punished with imprisonment for a term of more than one (1) year, and the time elapsed after serving the full term of such sentence is less than two (2) years;

- (i) resigns his office by notice in writing to the Company;
- (j) is removed from office pursuant to Article 72;
- (k) has been ordered to be discharged by the R.O.C. Courts on the grounds that such Director, in the course of performing his duties, committed serious violations of the Law, Applicable Listing Rules or these Articles, or acts resulting in material damage to the Company, upon a petition by the Company or Member(s) to the R.O.C. Courts, or
- (l) according to Article 197 of the R.O.C. Company Act, in case a director of the Company whose shares has transferred, during the term of office as a director, more than one half of the Company's shares being held by him at the time he is elected, he shall, ipso facto, be discharged from the office of director.

If any director of the Company whose shares, after having been elected and before his inauguration of the office of director, has transferred more than one half of the total number of shares of the Company he holds at the time of his election as such; or had transferred more than one half of the total number of shares he held within the share transfer prohibition period fixed prior to the convention of a Shareholder's Meeting, then his election as a director shall become invalid.

72. (a) The Company may by a Special Resolution remove a Director before the expiration of his period of office.
- (b) When the number of Directors falls below five (5) due to the dismissal of a Director for any reason, the Company shall hold an election for Director at the next following general meeting. When the number of Directors falls short by one-third of the total number of the Directors of the same term elected pursuant to these Articles, the Company shall convene a special general meeting of Members within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of that fact to hold an election for Directors.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

73. Unless otherwise provided for in these Articles, resolutions of the Board shall be adopted by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by a majority of the Directors.
74. (a) Meetings of the Board of Directors (either within or outside the Cayman Islands) shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors for the dispatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings; provided however, the first meeting of each term of the Board of Directors shall be convened by the Director (instead of the Chairman of the Board of Directors) who received a ballot representing the largest number of votes at the re-election of Directors at the general meeting of the Company.
- (b) Subject to these Articles, the first meeting of each term of the Board of Directors shall be convened within fifteen (15) days after the re-election of Directors at the general meeting of the Company.
75. In calling a meeting of the Board, a notice stating the subject(s) to be discussed at the meeting shall be given to each Director at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled meeting date. PROVIDED HOWEVER that such notice may be waived by all the Directors either at, before or after the meeting is held. Such notice or waiver may be given in writing, by telex, telefax, or email.
76. A Director may participate in any meeting of the Board, or of any committee appointed by the Board of which such Director is a member, by means of visual communication facilities or similar communication equipment by way of which all Persons participating in such meeting can communicate with and see each other and such participation shall be deemed to constitute presence in Person at the meeting
77. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles or the Law, the quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall be more than one-half of the Directors. A Director represented by proxy at any meeting shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present.
78. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to these Articles as the necessary quorum of Directors, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.
79. Subject to these Articles, any Director or officer may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director or officer PROVIDED THAT nothing herein contained shall authorise a Director or officer or his firm to act as Auditor of the Company.

80. A Director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Company shall declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Directors. A general notice given to the Directors by any Director to the effect that he is a member of any specified company or firm and is to be regarded as interested in any contract which may thereafter be made with that company or firm shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of interest in regard to any contract so made.
81. No person shall be disqualified from the office of Director or prevented by such office from contracting with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be or be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or transaction by reason of such Director holding office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established. A Director shall not vote his own vote, or by proxy or exercise the voting right on behalf of another Director, in respect of any contract or proposed contract, or transaction in which he may be interested therein. The voting right of such Director who cannot vote or exercise any voting right as prescribed above shall not be counted in the number of votes of Directors present at the Board meeting (but shall still be counted in the quorum for such meeting).
82. In case the Chairman is on leave or is unable to exercise his/her power and authority for any cause, the Chairman shall designate one of the Directors to act on his behalf. In the absence of such designation, the Director(s) shall elect from among themselves an acting chairman of the Board. The meetings and proceedings of any committee shall be governed by the provisions contained in these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as the same are applicable and are not superseded by any directions imposed by the Board. The proceedings regarding Board meetings not covered by these Articles shall be governed by the internal rules of the Company, as adopted and amended by the Board and reported to a general meeting from time to time, which shall be in compliance with the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules, particularly the Regulations Governing Procedure for Board of Directors Meetings of Public Companies.
83. To the extent permitted by the Law, the Directors may also meet by means of visual communication facilities which permit all Persons participating in the meeting to see and communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously, and such participation shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at the meeting.

SEALS AND DEEDS

84. (a) If the Directors determine that the Company shall have a common Seal, the Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the common Seal and the common Seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Directors, and in the presence of a Director and of the Secretary or, in place of the Secretary, by such other person as the Directors may appoint for the purpose; and that Director and the Secretary or other person as aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the common Seal of the Company is so affixed in their presence. Notwithstanding the provisions hereof, annual returns and notices filed under the Law may be executed either as a deed in accordance with the Law or by the common Seal being affixed thereto in either case without the authority of a resolution of the Directors by one Director or the Secretary.
- (b) The Company may maintain a facsimile of any common Seal in such countries or places as the Directors shall appoint and such facsimile Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the Directors and in the presence of such person or persons as the Directors shall for this purpose appoint and such person or persons as aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the facsimile Seal of the Company is so affixed in their presence and such affixing of the facsimile Seal and signing as aforesaid shall have the same meaning and effect as if the common Seal had been affixed in the presence of and the instrument signed by a Director and the Secretary or such other person as the Directors may appoint for the purpose.
- (c) In accordance with the Law, the Company may execute any deed or other instrument which would otherwise be required to be executed under Seal by the signature of such deed or instrument as a deed by two Directors of the Company, or by a Director and the Secretary of the Company or, in place of the Secretary, by such other person as the Directors may appoint or by any other person or attorney on behalf of the Company appointed by a deed or other instrument executed as a deed by two Directors of the Company, or by a Director and the Secretary or such other person as aforesaid.

RESERVES, DIVIDENDS AND BONUS

85. (a) Subject to the Law, the Company may, after paying all taxes and duties, by Ordinary Resolution, set aside certain amount of its surplus profits as a special reserve (the "Special Reserve") for such purposes as may be approved by the shareholders by way of Ordinary Resolution.
- (b) Unless otherwise provided in the Law, the Applicable Listing Rules and these Articles, the Capital Reserve shall not be used except for offsetting the losses of the Company. The Company shall not use the Capital Reserve to offset its capital losses unless the Special Reserve is insufficient to offset such losses.

86. Subject to the Law and these Articles, the Company may declare dividends or bonuses in any currency to be paid to the Members when there is any surplus profit at the end of the financial year.
87. Subject to the preceding Article, the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules, if the Company has profits in a financial year, the Company shall distribute one percent (1%) to ten percent (10%) of such profits for bonuses to employees and up to five percent (5%) of such profits for bonuses of Directors. However, if the Company has accumulated losses, such profits shall be first used to set off those accumulated losses.

The Company may, by a resolution adopted by a majority vote at a meeting of the Board attended by two-thirds of the total number of Directors, distribute the bonuses to employees (as set out in the preceding paragraph) in the form of shares or in cash; and such plan of distribution shall be reported to the shareholders at a general meeting.

The qualification requirements of employees (including the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries) for being entitled to receive bonuses, may be determined and amended by the Board from time to time.

- 87-1. After paying all relevant taxes, offsetting losses (including losses of previous years), first set aside ten percent (10%) of such profits as a legal reserve, and setting aside the Special Reserve (if any), the Company may, by an resolution of the annual general meeting to declare and distribute the shareholder's bonuses.

Distribution of bonuses to Members will be made by way of cash dividends and/ or stock dividends, depending on the Company's future capital requirements and long-term financial plans for its industry development's expansion needs. Of these bonuses, stock dividends will constitute 10% to 100%, and cash dividends will constitute 90% to 0%.

88. Where dividends or bonuses are declared in accordance with these Articles, the Company, subject to the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules, may by Special Resolution have the whole or a part of the surplus profit distributable as dividends or bonuses distributed in the form of new shares for such purpose; any fraction of such newly issued shares shall be paid in cash. However, under this circumstance, such bonuses distributable to the employees (if any) may be paid either in the form of newly issued shares or in cash.
89. If several persons are registered as joint Members of any Share, any of them may give effectual receipts for any dividend or other monies payable on or in respect of the Share.

90. Any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the Member or person entitled thereto in the Register of Members or by way of book-entry to the Member's account, in the case of joint Members addressed to the Member whose name stands first in the Register of Members in respect of the Shares at his registered address as appearing on the Register of Members or to such person at such address as the Member or person entitled or such joint Members, as the case may be, may direct in writing. Every such cheque or warrant shall, unless the Member or joint Member may in writing direct, be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent or to the order of the Member or, in the case of joint Members, to the order of the Member whose name stands first in the Register of Members in respect of such Shares, and shall be sent at his or their risk and payment of the cheque or warrant by the bank on which it is drawn shall constitute a good discharge to the Company. Any one of two or more joint Members may give effectual receipts for any dividends, distributions or other monies payable or property distributable in respect of the Shares held by such joint Members.
91. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company. All unclaimed dividends or distributions may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed. Any dividend or distribution unclaimed by a Member six years after the dividend or distribution payment date shall be forfeited and revert to the Company.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

92. Subject to the Law, where the Company incurs no loss, it may, by a Special Resolution, capitalize the Share Premium Account and/or the income from endowments received by the Company of Capital Reserve, in whole or in part, by issuing new, fully paid shares to the Members in proportion to the number of shares held by each of them in accordance with the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules. Subject to the requirements of the Law, the Board may make any arrangements it thinks fit to resolve a difficulty arising in the capitalisation under the preceding Article, including without limitation, Shares distributable in fractions.

ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

93. The books of account relating to the Company's affairs shall be kept in such manner as may be determined from time to time by the Company by Ordinary Resolution or failing such determination by the Board of the Company.
94. The books of account shall be kept at the Registered Office or at such other place or places as the Directors think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the Directors.
95. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution from time to time determine or, failing such determination, the Directors may from time to time determine that Auditors shall be appointed and that the accounts relating to the Company's affairs shall be audited in such manner as the Company by Ordinary Resolution or the Board (as the case may be) shall determine PROVIDED THAT nothing contained in this Article shall require Auditors to be appointed or the accounts relating to the Company's affairs to be audited.

96. No Member (not being a Director) or other person shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by the Law and R.O.C. Laws or ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or authorised by the Board or the Company in general meeting.

SHARE PREMIUM ACCOUNT

97. The Directors shall in accordance with the Law establish a Share Premium Account and shall carry to the credit of such account from time to time a sum equal to the amount or value of the premium paid on the issue of any Share.
98. There shall be debited to any Share Premium Account on the redemption or purchase of a Share the difference between the nominal value of such Share and the redemption or purchase price provided always that at the discretion of the Directors such sum may be paid out of the profits of the Company or, if permitted by the Law, out of capital.
99. The Company shall at all times comply with the provisions of the Law in relation to the Share Premium Account, the premiums attaching to Shares and the capital redemption reserve fund.

WINDING UP

100. Subject to the Law, if the Company shall be wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a Special Resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Law and all applicable law, divide amongst the Members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for such purpose set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator may with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributors as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any Shares or other securities upon which there is any liability. This Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of Shares issued upon special terms and conditions.
101. Subject to the Law, if the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution amongst the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the, losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up, at the commencement of the winding up, on the Shares held by them respectively. If in a winding up the assets available for distribution amongst the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the surplus shall be distributed amongst the Members in proportion to the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the Shares held by them respectively. This Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of Shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

102. The Company shall keep all statements, records of account and documents for a period of ten years from the date of the completion of liquidation, and the custodian thereof shall be appointed by the liquidator.

NOTICES

103. (a) Subject to the Law and except as otherwise provided in these Articles, any notice or document may be served by the Company or by the person entitled to give notice to any Member either personally, or by facsimile, or by sending it by post in a prepaid letter or via a recognised courier service, fees prepaid, addressed to such Member at his address as appearing in the Register of Members, to such Member to his registered address, or (if he has no registered. address) to the address, if any, supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notices to him, or to the extent permitted by all applicable laws and regulations, by posting on the MOPS or the Company's website, by electronic means by transmitting it to any electronic mail number or address such Member may have positively confirmed in writing for the purpose of such service of notices. In the case of joint Members of a Share, all notices shall be given to that one of the joint Members whose name stands as their representative in the Register of Members in respect of the joint holding, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint Members.
104. Any notice or other document, if served by:
- (i) post or courier, shall be deemed to have been served three days after the time when the letter containing the same is posted or delivered to the courier;
 - (ii) facsimile, shall be deemed to have been served upon production by the transmitting facsimile machine of a report confirming transmission of the facsimile in full to the facsimile number of the recipient;
 - (iii) courier service, shall be deemed to have been served forty-eight (48) hours after the time when the letter containing the same is delivered to the courier service; or
 - (iv) electronic mail, shall be deemed to have been served immediately upon the time of the transmission by electronic mail, subject to the Law.

In proving service by post or courier service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice or documents was properly addressed and duly posted or delivered to the courier service

105. In case of joint Members, all notices shall be given to that one of the Members whose name stands as their representative in the Register of Members in respect of the joint holding.
106. A notice may be given by the Company to the person entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description, at the address, if any supplied for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled or (until such an address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.
107. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in the same manner hereinbefore authorised to:
 - (a) every Member with the right to receive notice as at the record date and who have supplied to the Company an address for the giving of notices to them; and
 - (b) every person entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member, who, but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting and has informed the Company with the supporting documents as requested by and satisfactory to the Company.

No other persons shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

CLOSING REGISTER OR FIXING RECORD DATE

108. For the purpose of determining those Members that are entitled to receive notice of, attend or vote at any meeting of Members or any adjournment thereof, or those Members that are entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or who are Members for any other purpose, the Directors may provide that the Register of Members shall be closed for transfers for a stated period. During the Relevant Period, the Register of Members shall be closed at least for a period of sixty (60) days, thirty (30) days and five (5) days immediately before the date of each annual general meeting, each special general meeting and the record date for a dividend, bonus or other distribution, respectively. For the purpose of calculating the abovementioned period, the respective convening date of general meeting or the applicable target date shall be included.
109. Apart from closing the Register of Members, the Directors may fix in advance the record date(s) for determination of Members that are entitled to, inter alia, receive notice of, to attend or to vote at a meeting of the Members in person, by proxy, in writing or by way of electronic transmission, or receive payment of any dividend. The Directors may, at or within 90 days prior to the date of the declaration of such dividend, fix a subsequent date as the record date for such determination.

AMENDMENT OF MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES

110. Subject to and insofar as permitted by the provisions of the Law and these Articles, the Company may from time to time by a Special Resolution alter or amend its Memorandum of Association or these Articles in whole or in part provided however that no such amendment shall effect the rights attaching to any class of Shares without the consent or sanction provided for in Article 4(c).

ORGANISATION EXPENSES

111. The preliminary and organisation expenses incurred in forming the Company shall be paid by the Company and may be amortised in such manner and over such period of time and at such rate as the Directors shall determine and the amount so paid shall in the accounts of the Company, be charged against income and/or capital.

OFFICES OF THE COMPANY

112. The Registered Office of the Company shall be at such address in the Cayman Islands as the Directors shall from time to time determine. The Company, in addition to its Registered Office, may establish and maintain an office in the Cayman Islands or elsewhere as the Directors may from time to time determine.

INDEMNITY

113. Every Director, every Auditors, every Secretary and other officer for the time being and from time to time of the Company or any trustee for the time being acting in relation to the affairs of the Company and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives or successors or assigns (each an "Indemnified Person") shall, in the absence of the Indemnified Person's own dishonesty, wilful neglect or default or fraud, be indemnified and secured harmless by the Company against, and it shall be the duty of the Directors out of the funds and other assets of the Company to pay, all actions, proceedings, costs, charges, losses, damages, expenses and liabilities incurred, including travelling expenses, which any such Director, officer or trustee may incur or become liable in respect of by reason of any contract entered into, or act or thing done by him as such Director, officer or trustee or in any way in or about the execution of his duties and the amount for which such indemnity is provided shall immediately attach as a lien on the property of the Company and have priority as between the Members over all other claims. No Indemnified Person shall be liable or answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Indemnified Person or for joining in any receipt or other act for conformity or for any costs, loss, expense or liabilities incurred happening to the Company through the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the monies of the Company shall be invested or for any loss of the monies of the Company which shall be invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person with whom any monies, securities or effects shall be deposited, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatsoever which shall happen in or about the execution of the duties of his respective office or trust or in relation thereto unless the same happens through his own wilful neglect or default.

FINANCIAL YEAR

114. Unless the Board otherwise prescribes, the financial year of the Company shall end on December 31st in each year and shall begin on January 1st in each year.
115. The Company shall designate an agent for litigious and non-litigious matters, respectively, to serve as the responsible person under the R.O.C. Securities and Exchange Act within R.O.C.
